

President's Message—Kurt Steidle

Another year wraps up!

I hope your Thanksgiving was enjoyable and you are having some fun in anticipation of the coming holidays. Our December General Membership Meeting / Christmas Dinner will be a little different this year as Vice President Cody Howry has some surprises. As he asked at the last meeting, wear some festive outfits and join in with the car decoration contest.

We also have Jeff Murphy's The Price is Right / Barrett-Jackson Edition coming in January so look forward to his introduction article elsewhere in this newsletter. I understand we may have an on-site correspondent in Scottsdale this year as well! No, I am not saying that it is Jeff.

We also have voting underway for the Annual Awards Banquet coming in March. The five categories remain the same as last year: Lifetime Achievement, Outstanding Worker(s), Unsung Hero, Outstanding Leader(s) and Outstanding New Member. Like last year, the voting will be done solely on-line via Survey Monkey. The link to this portal is shown in the article. When you vote, please add a comment describing why the person or persons are nominated. You do not need to rewrite War and Peace but give a few sentences to support your selection.

2025 elections are complete and I welcome Mary Anne Lewandowski as President, Lisa DeFelice as Vice President and Steve Colucci as Treasurer. They will join Scott Breneman as Governor, Suzanne Baker as Secretary, Newsletter Editor Tony DeFelice and Membership Officer Mike Baker. I will work with the Executive Board as Past President in a non-voting role for the coming year.

I am grateful to have members step up and take roles on the Executive Board. New leaders who join in and foster innovative ideas make our club sustainable for the future.

Lastly, a big thank you to all who helped me as President over the past five years. It has been a pleasure to lead this club and I have enjoyed all the events and activities we have had. Have Merry Christmas, Happy Hanukkah or whatever observance you celebrate – have a safe and memorable holiday!!

- Kurt Steidle

2024 Club Award Nominations

Five Awards to Be Presented at The Annual Awards Banquet and Dinner Dance in March.

The club's Annual Awards Banquet and Dinner Dance is here again. Vice President Rick Evans is working on the banquet details. The flyer for making your reservation can be found in this newsletter. A deadline of January 25, 2025, is set to enable all the preparation to be completed on time.

President Kurt Steidle is organizing a committee to review nominations for the awards. The categories remain the same as last year's.

The following are the award categories with a description of each:

LCCC Lifetime Achievement Award—One person, recognized annually, for the consistently outstanding leadership, participation, involvement and contributions to the club throughout their membership tenure. This award is based on achievement not attendance. Recognition should be limited to those individuals who have been members for 15 years or more.

LCCC Outstanding Worker(s)—Recognition of an individual or couple that consistently 'steps-up' to help in club activities throughout the year. Often, they go above and beyond in their efforts.

LCCC Unsung Hero—Recognition of an individual member that typically 'flies below the radar,' but consistently shows up, [participates and gets involved in a variety of club activities.

Outstanding Leader(s)—Recognition for an individual or couple who both actively participate in the club's various activities and events, including taking leadership/organizing roles in a variety of activities or events.

Outstanding New Member—Rookie recognition of an individual member who has recently joined the club (since July or the previous year). These new members have jumped in 'headfirst' to participate in activities or events and actively support the club.

Remember that these awards reflect the 2024 club year. To nominate members for these categories, use the SurveyMonkey link below. Please include a brief comment as to why you believe your nominee deserves to be recognized. The deadline for nominations is January 25, 2025.

Front Page Feature Corvette— The Baker's

Enjoy the Ride...

Having a love for our 2012 Centennial Grand Sport we knew at some point we would want a newer Corvette and placed our name on the waiting list. After 8 months, we got the call to bring our specs to the dealership and the fun and excitement was underway.

We opted for the R8C Museum Delivery option and WOW it was nothing short of amazing. We made plans to fly to Nashville and drive the car home. Landing the day before, we made the short drive to Bowling Green and were able to get a sneak peak of our design in person for the first time on the museum floor.

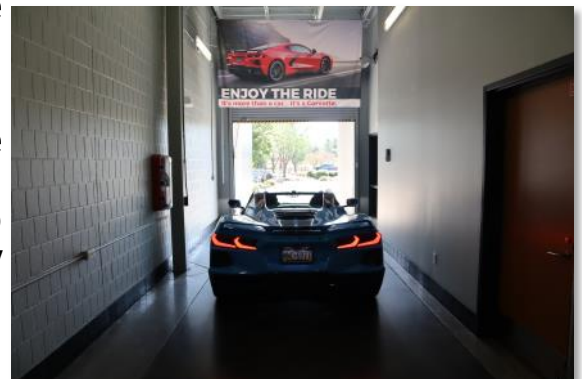

The next day we were like children on Christmas morning and arrived at the front door of the Museum an hour before it was scheduled to open. Our delivery representative Chris stepped out the front door and asked if we were the Bakers. "Absolutely", we replied. Chris was all about theatrical impressions and used the key fob to awaken the car with a thunderous roar inside the museum lobby and hooked us immediately.

We honestly only heard a few words during the thorough demonstration of features in the car because we wanted out of there to play like a kid going to recess. The museum staff were nothing short of amazing and treated us like royalty for the duration of our visit. In fact, when we returned several weeks later with the Corvette Caravan, Chris spotted us in the crowd and asked us how everything was going with the car and if we had any questions. If you are debating the museum delivery option, just do it!

Fast forward three months and almost 4,500 miles later, we continue to love every aspect of the car and the smiles it brings us with every start just like that first day in Bowling Green. We are looking forward to many trips and exciting driving experiences along with the Centennial that seems to have taken a never imaginable second-place spot in our garage.

One of our favorite photos is of our car leaving the museum exit with a small sign hanging above the door that reads "Enjoy the Ride...Its more than a car...It's a Corvette". We are doing our best to follow those instructions and loving every memory we make along the way.

“The Price Is Right!”

Barrett-Jackson
Auto Auction
January 21-25, 2025

With some exciting new additions designed to encourage “sideline sitters” to get off their duffs and join the fun, we are happy to reveal that for the 19th CONSECUTIVE YEAR LCCC’s “The Price Is Right” guessing game returns next month!

Held in conjunction with January’s Barrett-Jackson Scottsdale Collector Car Auction, LCCC’s annual prognosticating extravaganza is your opportunity to join fellow LCCC members in a friendly 5-day competition showcasing your sometimes mystical (and/or questionable) ability to peer into the future and forecast the precise “hammer price” of about two dozen (+ or -) plastic-bodied beauties – each and every one hand-picked by your slightly sinister Master of Ceremonies from the entire auction field of 120+ Corvettes. Just for fun, we’ll throw-in a few unique “non-Corvettes” crossing the stage on “Big Money” Saturday to keep it interesting for those that have stumbled along the way and are out of the running for any of our top contest honors.

As always, we’ll have prizes for the top three finishers, the top rookie, the player with the most “bull’s eyes”, the team that ultimately vanquishes the others, and maybe one or two other good-natured awards. While there is always a core of “TPIR Veterans” making up a good portion of the field, this year we’ve added special “Daily Prizes” exclusively for rookies to encourage more of you to enter the game – that’s right, FIVE unique prizes just for you newbies, and nobody can win more than one! And if you think your lack of Corvette-specific knowledge is a reason to sit this out – think again. Last year’s “Rookie of the Year” basically told me her winning methodology ranged from “I really liked the color, so I guessed high” to “I thought that one was kind of fugly, so I guessed low”. In other words, don’t overthink this and jump in!!

Just like golf, this is a “low-score wins” kind of contest. “Penalty Bands” will remain the same as the past few years: guess within 25% of the actual selling price, and your “penalty” will simply be the difference between the two. Miss by more than 25% but less than 50%, and we’ll double the difference. Miss by 50% or more, and you’ll enjoy a 3X penalty along with a good chance of spending some “time in the barrel” of your MC’s daily commentary, along with a few well-deserved giggles from your fellow competitors. For those new to the action, if you’re concerned that you’ll be the only one who frequents the triple-punishment category, we can assure you that you’ll have plenty of company from everyone who plays – nobody escapes unscathed! Our very popular (and often game-saving) “Get Out of Jail Free” rule is back (which automatically eliminates your single worst penalty), once again accompanied by the “Kevin Hart” rule, which completely removes from our contest any vehicle where some idiot (aka, Kevin Hart) overbids the value so absurdly that the “Get Out of Jail Free” rule must be applied to our entire field on a single car. If you’re still not sure why this rule exists, Google “Barrett Jackson 2021 Lot 1358”, or “Kevin Hart spends way too much on a Corvette”. Results will be provided each day after the final gavel falls via email (in both .pdf and Excel spreadsheet format), accompanied by the widely anticipated acidic commentary from your MC which adds just the right degree of levity to the proceedings.

Based on the successful process we’ve managed to follow in the last few years, the official LCCC “The Price Is Right” auction entry form WILL NOT appear in the January newsletter and will ONLY go out to all members via email blast in early January. All entries must be received VIA EMAIL no later than Saturday, January 18, 2025 at 7:00pm PST (that’s 10:00pm for you folks in the Keystone state). At that point I’ll get all of the predictions loaded into the spreadsheet and contact last year’s top finishers – who will draft their teams from the full roster of all participants, select an appropriate moniker for their band of combatants, and initiate the generally genial “trash talk” as the fun begins!

As the action reaches a climax on Saturday night, I'm excited to announce that the "The Price Is Right" wrap-up viewing party is back – this year hosted by Suzanne & Mike Baker!! This event is always a great gathering, where friendship and good-natured ribbing of fellow competitors is as widely shared as the potluck food and drink. More details to follow.

Questions? Ask anyone who has participated over the last few years, drop me an email at zr1-zo6@comcast.net, or just give me a call at 717.201.4690 (I'm now on PST, so not too early ☺). This is clearly an activity where "the more the merrier" rings true, so there's really no good reason to sit on the sidelines and let others have all the fun (and the prizes)!

Last year we had 36 members take the plunge and test their prognosticating abilities against the fervor of Scottsdale's jacked-up, Corvette-hungry attendees. I'd love to see us DWARF that number this year and turn our contest to see who grabs the "Rookie of the Year" award into a real battle! Wishing everyone a wonderful holiday season, good luck and great guessing, your Master of Ceremonies,

- Jeff Murphy

TWO AWESOME TRIPS, I NEED PARTNERS FOR

I have two awesome trips coming up that I need partners with.

The first will be a "Road Trip" to the Rolex 24 Hour Race at Daytona to which I've been going 20 + years. We will share the driving of my Orange C8 Corvette down and back and spend 4 days at the track. The cost will be $170 for the four day ticket plus share the cost of the gas and Motel bills. We will leave on the trip on Wednesday Jan 22nd, spend Thursday thru Sunday at the track, and return home by late afternoon on Monday Jan 26th. Please quickly give me a call or email if you sound interested.

I also need a Transit Driver to go along on One Lap of America to help share driving the highway miles. This is really a World Class event. We will leave for South Bend Indiana, where the event starts, in the morning on Thursday, May 1st and return home after the event late on Saturday night, May 10th. We will be using my 2023 Orange Corvette and I will do all the competitive driving on the race tracks. If you think you are interested, I can send you information about the details and costs, that you can review and decide if you still want to be considered. Quickly give me a call or send me an email.
