

President's Message—Kurt Steidle

It's déjà vu all over again!

Many of you may recall that comical phrase attributed to baseball Hall of Famer, Yogi Berra. Well, that's how I felt when I started this month's message. I do not recycle old messages as there is often sufficient information to write a few paragraphs about. This month, I decided to look back to last year's message for November and that's when it struck me, it's déjà vu all over again!

I could have scrubbed last year's notes and passed it on – same message, different year. I referred last year to the "annual beg" that is supposed to be our election of a new Executive Board. As usual, there has been a lot of discussions, maybe a little arm twisting but we now have slots filled waiting for the procedural 'vote' at the November General Meeting. This is not how it should work.

Another year-end exercise is also upon us, the Annual Club Awards. Within the pages of this newsletter edition are the descriptions of the categories. Please review the categories and your considerations carefully. Again, this year, we will only take nominations via SurveyMonkey. No e-mail nominations will be accepted. The link to the survey can be found at the end of the article. Awards will be presented at the Annual Awards Banquet in March. A flyer for the event will be coming by the December newsletter.

Just a reminder, the 2024 Christmas Dinner and General Meeting is fast approaching. Vice President Cody Howry needs your reservation form and money soon. The November General Meeting would be a great opportunity for you to get that done.

One update to share, the annual shopping excursion for Christmas Angels was set for Sunday, December 15th but East Petersburg Fire Company has a conflict that day with the use of the fire hall (for gift wrapping) for two other activities. We are planning to move the shopping and wrapping activity to Saturday, December 14th with the same plan as before – gather for breakfast at the Lyndon Diner, shop at Boscov's and wrap at East Pete. More details will be covered at the November meeting.

To wrap up October, we had a great turnout at Perry County Corvette Club's Fall Register Show. The club took the top prize for most participating members and was awarded $100. Congratulations to Craig Foreman for his second-place win the C3 class and to Clyde and Sue Mooney for their second-place prize in the C8 class.

Also in October, we had our Gimmick Rallye on the 19th. Once again, Scott Breneman did an outstanding job providing an excellent selection of interesting roads in beautiful countryside. Thank you, Scott!

To everyone, please have a safe and enjoyable Thanksgiving!

- Kurt Steidle

Governor's Report—Scott Breneman

Scott Breneman reported he attended the Governor's Meeting about 2 weeks ago. There was survey sent out and it showed that there are Club members who are not satisfied with what is happening. The East Region is putting a bid together a bid to have the 2027 Convention at the Museum. They are also looking at ways to cut costs such as on-line renewals. There was not much in the way of rules changes that will affect LCCC unless we find a venue for Auto Cross. The search for an alternate venue is on-going.

President's Report—Kurt Steidle

Kurt reported that the breakdown of the donations for the Raffle car were $37,400 to CMAF and $38,300 to Clare House of Lancaster. With these donations we are close to $1,000,000.00 for donations to Charity by LCCC.

Kurt also noted that it will soon be the time for the Annual Awards in March (will send out date when it is confirmed). The Club will again use Survey Monkey to determine the award winners.

Vice President's Report—Cody Howry

Cody discussed that everything is set for the Christmas Dinner/December meeting on 12/11/24 at the Timbers Restaurant. Cody invited everyone to bring their Corvette, or whichever car they drive to the event decorated for the Holiday. The deadline to RSVP for the event is 11/22/2024.

Membership Report—Mike Baker

Mike Baker reminded everyone to get their registrations for next year in before the end of October. After 10/31/24, NCCC charges an extra $10 and we cannot waive this fee.

There were 3 new membership applications: Gus Flichia, James Volker, and Michael and Lucille Millhouse. After a motion to accept from Brad Marley and a second from Angie Evans- all in favor. All were accepted into membership.

gave $506 to Clare House from the sales of bottles of wine. Nissley was happy with the turnout. When Kurt and Joanie went to pick up what was left there, they expressed how happy they were with the help from the Club and the organization to get cars there. The Club will share feedback with them for next year.

Gimmick & Chance Rallye is happening on 10/19/24. Currently there are 8 cars currently signed up. 7 are club members and 1 is not from our club.

Secretary: for September's General Meeting minutes were approved after a motion by Tony DeFelice, seconded by Scott Breneman and passed by all.

Treasurer: The report was reviewed by Kurt for Carl. The report was approved after a motion by Mike Baker, seconded by Sue Baker and passed by all.

Vice President: Cody was not able to make the meeting. Tony DeFelice has received the Christmas Meeting Flyer and it will be in the Newsletter. Everything is good to go with Timbers.

President: Kurt discussed that there is a need for the Club to find a place to store some of the Club items that are currently being stored by Kurt. Kurt reviewed the cost of 3 storage locations (Stow Away, Move-In and Keep Safe). The Board members will review and continue the discussion at the next meeting to find a location that will work for both the location and cost.

Kurt discussed the Executive Board for next year. Kurt, Carl and Cody have all stated that they will be stepping down for next year. There was discussion of the need to get members to be willing to step into these positions. Kurt talked about each Board Member putting together a list of their responsibilities that could assist a new person stepping in, having members interested in taking a position work with the current board member to know what all the position entails so it is not as intimidating as some may think. The Board also discussed talking about having term limits to ensure the Board has change to keep new ideas. Kurt and Mike will talk more to discuss what that would look like and how that would be stated. This is something that would have to be part of an addendum and be voted on by the general membership. This will be discussed at the next meeting.

Governor: Scott reported that the next meeting will be Saturday in Grantville. He will have more information after this meeting.

Membership: Mike reviewed that there are 129 current members. He currently has 45 renewals as of this meeting.

Newsletter: Tony reported once he has the President's message, the Newsletter will be ready. American Legends will be in the November Newsletter due to time constraints.

Kurt noted that Jim Roberts will be receiving the Grassroots Partner Award on 10/14/24 at the Harrisburg Hilton.

There being no further business – motion to adjourn by Sue Baker, seconded by Tony DeFelice and approved by all- the meeting was adjourned at 8:04 pm.

The club's Annual Awards Banquet and Dinner Dance is here again. Vice President Rick Evans is working on the banquet details. The flyer for making your reservation can be found in this newsletter. A deadline of January 25, 2025, is set to enable all the preparation to be completed on time.

The following are the award categories with a description of each:

LCCC Lifetime Achievement Award—One person, recognized annually, for the consistently outstanding leadership, participation, involvement and contributions to the club throughout their membership tenure. LCCC Unsung Hero—Recognition of an individual member that typically 'flies below the radar,' but consistently shows up, [participates and gets involved in a variety of club activities.

Outstanding Leader(s)—Recognition for an individual or couple who both actively participate in the club's various activities and events, including taking leadership/organizing roles in a variety of activities or events.

Outstanding New Member—Rookie recognition of an individual member who has recently joined the club (since July or the previous year). These new members have jumped in 'headfirst' to participate in activities or events and actively support the club.

Remember that these awards reflect the 2024 club year. To nominate members for these categories, use the SurveyMonkey link below. Please include a brief comment as to why you believe your nominee deserves to be recognized. The deadline for nominations is January 25, 2025.

I went in for an oil change and came out with an E-Ray...

It was just a year ago that we purchased our second Corvette, the 2017 Stingray Convertible. What a great car!! Something that we could drive like normal people, not the drag car that our C5 has become. Well, that didn't last long.

I've said to a number of you that I am a slow adopter. I'm usually a generation or three behind, once I like something, I stick with it. I hadn't really come to love the C8 and I am certainly not an electric vehicle kind of guy. So what did we do, we got ourselves an electric C8. Makes sense.

So here's the story. When the reveal for the E-Ray came out, I was already thinking, the C8 has bent too far to the European mindset and now they are going to screw it up by making it electric. Boy was I proven wrong!

I begrudgingly watched the reveal video and OMG!!! It was love at first sight. Not only did they keep the big ole engine in the rear, they also added the 160 HP electric motor in the front. In a stroke of brilliance for so many reasons, they made it AWD and decoupled the electric driven front wheels from the regularly powered rear wheels. They made no bones about it, the electric motor was not for economy, it is meant for pure performance enhancement (some of us can always use that). Beyond that, they also made it more of a touring car than the raw, unbridled performance machine that is the Z06. So here's a car in which we can comfortably take road trips, that's easy for us both to drive, and will allow me to piss off an unsuspecting Z06 light to light.

The specs on the car are incredible, but like one would expect, there were not that many produced and getting one was almost impossible. Also, if you could find one, they were priced in the stratosphere. Therefore, I put it out of my mind.

Well then came the fateful e-mail from Whitmoyer. It was an ad that indicated they got four Z06's and were selling them for $10,000 off MSRP. What?? A Z06 for less than MSRP?? Assuming they would be scooped up quickly, I didn't reach out. But I had a service appointment for the C7 and decided to go see Matt Beaver about the black Z06. He told me that one was sold, the only one left was the red one. After a day or so thinking about it, I went back to let him know I only wanted black. He then said that he just got contacted by a dealer that is trying to unload a black E-Ray; I couldn't believe it! After showing a bit of interest, getting permission from Lisa, and haggling a bit, I bought it sight unseen.

I had never even driven a C8, but I couldn't pass up this opportunity.

When I arrived at Whitmoyer to pick it up, I saw that Carbon Flash Metallic paint sparkling in the sun and I may have shed a tear, peed a little, or maybe both. It is truly a gorgeous car. It has the body of the Z06, massive ceramic rotors, red calipers, huge performance tires (ZER package), all the ground effects, 3LZ, and more stuff than I can remember.

Regarding performance, while the Z06 will get you better numbers on a longer track, the E-Ray does the 0-60 in 2.5 seconds versus the Z06 in 2.6 seconds. Also, in the 1/4 mile, the E-Ray is 0.1 second quicker than the Z06. Based on Chevrolet's marketing department, the E-ray is currently the quickest Corvette ever produced. That is until the 2025 ZR-1 hits the streets...

LCCC Gimmick Rallye

We had a beautiful day for our Rallye on October 19th. The leaves were starting to change color and a sunny 70*. We had 10 cars ready to challenge their powers of observation driving through the countryside, stopping at 27 stop signs, and answering 34 questions at an average speed of 25mph.

Participants drove across the drag strip at Maple Grove Raceway and answered challenging questions like “How many sides does the round barn have?” Due to a typo on the route (Gill Rd vs. Hill Rd), we had a half dozen Corvettes swarming an intersection 15 minutes from the end of the Rallye.

The first 2 teams in casually mentioned there was a typo, while some of the experienced teams were stuck for a period of time. The winners of the last 2 LCCC Rallyes drove 71 miles on the 46 mile route, and were the last to arrive.

Eventually everyone made it to Doc & Bubba’s in Mohnton PA, and a leisurely lunch was enjoyed by all. I’d like to thank the Bakers for checking the rallye, everyone who attended, and also apologize for the confusion caused by my typo.

Christmas Angels Wrap-up

Christmas Angels

Thank you to everyone who helped with the Christmas Angels project this year. We couldn't have done it without all the support, from start to finish. Despite the rainy day, it was a success – better than last year. We were able to raise $2,943 for our Clare House gift shopping. We had about 75 raffle items, 25 gift certificates with a total value of $955.00, and 20 additional silent auction items.

The theme baskets you made were exceptional. We received a lot of positive comments on the quality, quantity, and variety. I talked with some of the shoppers, including members of other clubs, and they are expecting great things again next year. I heard comments such as, "Next year I'll need to bring more money" and "This is great". I don't know if we can top what we did this year, but we'll give it our best effort. Start thinking about how you can contribute -- be it a theme basket, gift certificate, other item, or even an empty basket that we can fill.

Hopefully next year we will have nice weather with a great turn-out for our car show and basket raffle/silent auction.

Again many thanks,

- Angie and Deb
